Updated Court of Alderney Covid-19 response

The Court of Alderney is continuing to review services available during the current climate.

The Court office is now closed to the public and the staff may be working remotely. All enquiries should be made by email to court@alderney.gov.gg. This email address is monitored and we will respond to you as soon as we are able. There may be a delay in answering and or responding to telephone call however our emails are monitored so please wherever possible use the email address.

Court

Scheduled Civil Court on 2nd April 2020 at 2:30 has been adjourned.

Small claims matters (financial claims less than £10,000): Any new small claims hearings will be adjourned to a date after May (subject to review).

For any existing claims either summonsed or awaiting a further hearing, the parties will be contacted and the matters adjourned to a later date.

Service and enforcement: Service and Enforcement will be limited and will be dealt with on a case by case basis.

Other matters: All other matters may be commenced, but please note that any non-urgent matters may not be listed for the coming months. Any existing matters will be heard subject to the Court's discretion, or otherwise adjourned. The parties will be notified on a case by case basis.

Birth Marriages and Deaths

Birth registration will be accepted through an agreed process with the Loveridge Ward in Guernsey. Should you have an on Island birth please email court@alderney.gov.gg and we will provide you with the necessary registration forms. Births must still be registered within 30 days of the date of birth

Death registrations will be handled by the undertaker with whom we have agreed processes.

The Registrar is currently unable to offer a marriage service. As soon as we are able to provide this service again a further notice will be issued. In the interim we are happy to take enquiries and assist where possible.

Land and Company Registry

Please make all enquiries to court@alderney.gov.gg. Including lodging of documents and applications to meet any statutory requirement. There may be a delay in replying to you but we will respond as soon as we are able.
